INITIAL 20 1235Z Oct 22 EUCOM SIGACT GBR PM Liz Truss Resigned - London (UNCLASSIFIED)	7640	GBR PM Liz Truss	Resigned	20 1235Z Oct 22		This is the second resignation of a British PM in 2022. British news outlets are assessing this may presage a parliamentary election due to continued turbulence within the governing Conservative and Unionist Party (commonly known as the "Tory Party"). Of note, Northern Ireland will also potentially be facing an election for the Northern Ireland Assembly; Northern Ireland had an election in May 2022 but has been unable to reach a power-sharing agreement among its sectarian parties and will have to call an election if they do not do so by 28 Oct. INITIAL 07 0811Z Jul 22 EUCOM SIGACT UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson Resignation - London [UNCLASSIFIED]	7043	UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson	Resignation	07 0811Z Jul 22		PM Johnson is resigning his position following the resignation of 55x Members of Parliament (MP) from cabinet and other governmental positions (most of these MPs have not resigned their parliamentary seats; these positions are in addition to that role). PM Johnson is experiencing a scandal surrounding his elevation of MP Chris Pincher (reportedly widely nicknamed "Arse Pincher") to the governmental role of Deputy Chief Whip in Feb 2022 despite knowledge of several sexual misconduct complaints against the MP. MP Pincher resigned his role on 30 Jun following allegations of groping incidents on 29 Jun. PM Johnson's Conservative and Unionist Party (commonly known as "Tory") currently holds 358 of 650 seats in the UK House of Commons. UK news outlets are predicting that this resignation may trigger a General Election for the House of Commons, ruling parties may select a new PM in the event one resigns, but if they are unable to do so, an election will be called. By law, General Elections must occur every 5 years. The UK has had 3x General elections since 2015.	London
